

The Woodlands

Custom Home Collection

We've adapted this to be just the right size for that cabin in the woods, or neighborhood corner lot, or getaway by the water. This home packs a lot of family living in an affordable space.

One look at this floor plan and you will be ready to move in. We're serious. This one is definitely a keeper in our books. You won't be able to stop looking out those fantastic great room windows!

Separate guest bedrooms keep privacy at a maximum, while dual use of the bathroom as your guest powder room keeps bathroom cleanup at a minimum. We really like the sound of that.

Start dinner in the open kitchen while the kids do homework at the table and Dad watches the news (or is that Mom)? Maybe they're both in the kitchen and just have the music turned on. Now THAT sounds like a family night at home.

So snuggle in, sit the family down and play that new game, you're already...Home at Last.
